File No. Prohibition Licences III/1950

Gen. 194 e.

146-B

Legal Department.

The draft licence and agreement as amended at pages 113-157 ante, are in order.

2. It will not be possible to control the manufacture of power alcohol under the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949. All references to power alcohol have, therefore, been omitted from the draft licence and agreement forms.

3. It seems that the Agreement should be in the name of "The Krishna Sugar Mills Ltd.". M/s Vinchurkar and Co.s Ltd. the Managing Agents of the Company may execute the agreement on behalf of the Krishna Sugar Mills Ltd. It is presumed that M/s Vinchurkar and Company is a limited company and that under the articles of association of the Krishna Mills Ltd., the Managing Agents are authorised to execute agreements on behalf of the Company.
